Dear Mr Faulkner,

The Australian Local Government Women's Association (ALGWA) is the peak representative body for women in local government.

Blacktown City Council is proud to host the biennial ALGWA National Conference from 15 - 17 May, 2019 at Novotel Sydney, West HQ. Delegates from across the nation are invited to attend this special event.

The conference will provide valuable networking opportunities combined with an outstanding program of guest speakers, including Libby Lyons, Director of Australia's Workplace Gender Equality Agency, Deborah Thomas, admired and respected business woman and former Councillor, and Jessica Rowe AM, Master of Ceremonies.

The theme for the conference is '100 Years of Women' and will focus on how far women in local government have come in the last 100 years.

On behalf of Blacktown City Council, I would like to extend an invitation to you, your staff and Councillors to attend this prestigious event.

Please find enclosed a copy of conference program. For more information or to register please visit www.blacktown.nsw.gov.au/algwaconference
