8. General Business

International Women's Day: Was very successful. A lovely evening, next year lets plan ahead make it more about empowerment and inspiration to make real change for the lived experience of women , especially young women, in our region. At the next meeting everyone will bring ideas of possible IWD projects for 2022.

The committee acknowledge the hard work and support of Kellie and Tenille as well as the financial and in-kind support of the Foundations and the Village Voice.

THE $500 from Community events budget was used as follows: $250 catering, $150 Flowers and arrangements, $100 Mingaan.

Safe Haven Project: Currently has between 8 and 15 women for afternoon tea.

There are several older women joining the PCYC to participate in the Community Garden.

Planet Youth: Ongoing project report. Seeking parents/carers to participate in education, parent consultation group and possibly join the LDAT (Local Drug Action Team) as community representatives. Ali to share info.
