Good Afternoon Matt,

I have been on the previous Community Development Committee; I have been in business in Lithgow for nearly 15 years, however, I am retiring at the end of May and closing my retail business, although I still own properties in Lithgow and that business will continue; I am Secretary of the Lithgow District Chamber of Commerce, and have been for a number of years; I am President of South Bowenfels Rural Fire Service, and prior to that, I was Secretary and Secretary/President.

I have lived in Lithgow all of my life, with the exception of 5 years, and I am passionate about seeing Lithgow develop and expand both in business and population. I believe it is necessary for Lithgow to increase the businesses in the LGA so as to enable increased employment opportunities for both current, and following employable generations.

Glenda
